

DR. CELESTE JACKSON

BOARD MEMBER

Dr. Celeste A. Jackson is a Licensed Professional Counselor and Community Psychologist. Dr. Jackson's work centers around providing dynamic clinical interventions and viable restorative justice training. As a psychotherapist, Dr. Jackson provides therapy services to individuals, families, and groups using an integrative therapeutic approach. As a restorative justice practitioner, she develops and implements individualized training for organizations seeking to adopt evidence-based restorative justice practices within their companies to improve outcomes.

She has a Master's in Clinical Mental Health Counseling and a Doctorate in Community Psychology with a research focus on mass incarceration and program evaluation.

Dr. Jackson is a mother, wife, and advocate for social justice equality. She is a member of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Incorporated, and lives in Oswego, IL.

MERA
RESPONSE TEAM

